b. Stated that in reviewing his cables this morning he had noted several which he knew nothing about which appeared to deal with policy and had been approved for dispatch at a low level, e.g., [redacted]. The Director made it clear that he desired more top level control exercised on the release of cables.

General Cabell:

Noted General Bullock, Chief of the Army Psychological Warfare Program, is planning a trip "around the world", leaving on or about 1 April, and had asked if it would be possible for him to meet selected CIA Station Chiefs. Mr. Helms undertook to look into this matter and furnish his recommendations.

Mr. Bissell:

Stated he believed it would be well for the Director to receive a briefing on the full Killian Report and undertook to discuss this with Dr. Land when he is next in Washington on 10 March.

Colonel White:

Reported he had been in touch with Mr. Sprankle with respect to CIA's budget hearing, and it was agreed Colonel White would attempt to arrange this hearing for Monday, 14 March. This was subsequently changed to 10 March.
